

The Global Road Warrior is data on the move, a regular, roving globetrotter. If you think we're just another database, you've got another thing coming. Grab a boarding pass and see for yourself!

GlobalRoadWarrior.com

Culture, Communications, Travel, Business, and Maps for 175 countries and territories

Senegalese women don headscarves or turbans to match their boubous (loose-fitting tunics).

Mate, a traditional Argentine infusion made by steeping the dry leaves and twigs of the native yerba mate plant, is served in a gourd with a straw.

Ethiopia is the oldest independent country in Africa – over 2,000 years old.

The name Hong Kong means fragrant harbor, so called because it was once a port for incense and sandalwood.

The Great Sphinx in Egypt is the largest single-stone statue in the world, carved entirely from a single outcrop of limestone.

Global Road Warrior is available at your library or at home from your library's web site. Hop on board, and have some fun!

175 COUNTRIES – FROM A TO Z. IT'S ALL AT YOUR FINGERTIPS from your own private corner of the world. Whether you've got a backpack, briefcase, laptop, or a desk, the Global Road Warrior lets you circle the globe in the blink of a clear blue sky.

- * With 11-million-plus words of editorial content, growing and updated daily, you won't find more comprehensive data for global culture out there.
- * Add 1575 attractive, high-resolution maps to zoomify and download
- * Plus 6500 colorful country photos to enjoy...

and you've got yourself a first-class ticket to see the world!

A Passage to the World

Attractive, high-resolution maps provide bright, visual learning tools for the classroom, as project accents, or as learning and study guides.

Rich culture reports cover everything from childhood, dating, marriage, family and funerals to cultural faux pas. The Global Road Warrior database offers students and businesspeople a valuable treasure trove for research projects, planning and more.

A plethora of topics gets travelers, relocaters and professionals the information they need to plot and trot the globe.

Constantly updated data offers students, travelers, business people and researchers plenty to explore on a continual basis.

An international staff of research writers and cartographers, led by senior writer and researcher Jeffrey Curry, MBA, Ph.D., International Affiliate Professor at the Université de Nantes in France, give the product a global perspective and a leading edge.

No other database contains such broad and deep coverage of travel, communications and cultural issues for students, travelers, or international deal closers. All you have left to do is log-on.

Get Your Trial Pass Today. Let our agents assist you with a first-class experience to see the world. They'll walk you through the gate with a complimentary boarding pass. Then sit back, relax, and enjoy your trip!

Let the road warrior out in you!

www.globalroadwarrior.com
by World Trade Press
Petaluma, CA

97 categories of topics to explore,
here's a snippet of what's in store!

Society & Culture

- Sports
- Food
- Lifecycles
- Religion
- Superstitions & Folklore
- Holidays
- Media
- Gift Giving
- Time & Punctuality
- Points of Interest

Business Culture

- Greetings & Courtesies
- Business Ethic and Framework
- Decision Making
- Meetings
- Women in Business
- Business Attire
- Chambers of Commerce

Travel

- Money & Banking
- Security Briefing
- Immunization
- Transportation
- Internet & Email
- Electricity and Plugs
- Dialing Codes and Cell Phones
- Hotels
- Climate

Maps

- Political
- Physical
- Outline
- Provinces
- Population
- Temperature

Photos

- People
- Places
- Points of Interest
- ...and more